1. If there's a keep-the-baby-in-the-nursery-overnight option once it's born, take it. You'll have plenty of nights to get no sleep while wearing puke-soaked pajamas and crying into your Lean Cuisines when you get home. For now, it's best to hoard every last second of sleep you can get. 2. If that option doesn't exist, make sure you know your baby's name and gender when the nurse ...
